NEGRO ADMITS KILLING WOMAN

Theft Listed as Motive in Slaying of Young Housewife in New York

GRILLED FOR 24 HOURS

Blood Smeared Finger Prints and Trousers Lead to Suspect's Arrest

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK Jan 14 — District Attorney Charles P Sullivan announced today that Major Greene stocky Negro porter had signed a full confession admitting the bathtub slaying of pretty Mrs Mary Robinson Case

The 33 year old porter broke down and admitted his guilt at 5 25 a m Sullivan said after he had refused for 24 hours to admit complicity in the crime.

Three minutes later authorities had booked him at the Newtown police station in Queens Greene answered questions amiably when he was being charged

He was transferred later to Manhattan police headquarters to be shown in the lineup

Sullivan said the porter who was employed in the Jackson Heights apartment building where the attractive 25 year old housewife was strangled and beaten with a hammer before her body was dumped into a bathtub Monday would be arraigned today in Queens felony court

Theft was the motive Sullivan said in a terse statement He was let into the apartment by her (Mrs Case) on the pretext he was going to wash the windows That was before 2 p m just how long I can t say

Blood smeared fingerprints on the apartment woodwork and a blood-stained pair of trousers found in an incinerator chute were the clues that led to the arrest of Greene at his Harlem home 38 hours after the killing

A blood stained hammer also taken from the incinerator was established by police as the instrument with which Mrs Case's skull was crushed

Funeral services for Mrs Case were arranged for this afternoon at her home in Lancaster Pa where she and Frank Case 30 were married Nov 23 1935

PASSES MAJOR ISSUE BEFORE FAIR LEADERS

Group Also Considers Raising Admission Price or Eliminating It Entirely

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O Jan 14—Ohio's Fair Manager association and the state board of agriculture went into joint session today to wind up the three-day convention of the former group and iron out some of the problems facing the county and state exposition

Among matters to come before the meeting were the slashing of the number of passes handed out to the fairs a proposal that the state board either boost the admission price of the state fair from 25 to 50 cents or eliminate it altogether and demand for several changes in the rules governing the harness horse races which feature the exposition

Resolutions favoring the cut in the number of passes the change in the state fair price and the revising of the racing rules were passed by the county fair group and were to be debated again today before final action is taken

Red Stains on Car Spur Chase for Kidnap-Killer

Auto Stolen in Everett Impounded and Guarded Closely While Police Seek Knife Used in Stabbing.

By The Associated Press

TACOMA Wash, Jan 14—Red stains on an abandoned automobile possibly the one in which a man [illegible] kidnaper threw the body of stabbed and bludgeoned Charles Mattson 10 spurred officers along on a parallel warming trail today seeking the killer

The criminal investigative justice department agents utilized the most modern science to determine whether the stains were blood which flowed from the [illegible] victim before his slayer tossed him [illegible] and stabbed in the back into a snow-covered brush land near Everett

The automobile stolen last Friday night was found in Everett Authorities impounded it and set a round armed guards about it in a police garage

A resident said the car contained a [illegible] or clothing stained apparently by blood

The car reported stolen Friday night from Verne Williams of Everett was said to have tires of the type used by the abductor in his gruesome journey with the body Williams reported the car had no license plates when stolen It bore a stolen license number when found

While officers also sought a knife and studied clues reported almost hourly from widespread areas federal officials took quick steps to prosecute the killer

John Doe" Warrant Out

A John Doe warrant issued by a United States commissioner late yesterday officially made an outlaw of the abductor who seized Charles Dec 27 passed up offers of the demanded $28 000 ransom and left his battered body where it was found by a hunter last Monday

Several persons were detained for investigation and an order issued to apprehend a California ex-convict for questioning

Paul Seeva friend of the family expressed belief the kidnaper was so dangerous a man that he probably would have killed Charles father Dr W W Mattson had the physician gone out to meet him and pay the ransom

Officer declined comment on unconfirmed report that the autopsy indicated the boy was subjected to inhumanities probably by a pervert

Seeva thanked the Lord Dr Mattson was never able to contact the kidnaper of little Charles and give him the $28 000 ransom money

Certain He'd Have Died

I am certain he would never have come back alive

In California police sought the first man definitely named as wanted for questioning in the case He was Fred Orrin Haynes former convict His fingerprints were checked at Sacramento Officials at Folsom prison where he served a term for burglary were asked to aid in locating him The man's possible connection with the case was not revealed

One official said Haynes once had been questioned concerning a kidnap threat

Federal agents and state police subjected the automobile to rigid scrutiny while they followed dozens of reports from widely separated points One of these they believed would lead them to the kidnaper already thought to be in a state of acute terror and likely to reveal his whereabouts by some desperate move to obtain his freedom

They pointed out the man had taken the long chance of moving the dead body in his automobile after he had once hidden it as an indication of his fear

SOIL PROGRAM MEETING TODAY

Township Committeemen Meet To Map Plans for This Year 60 To Attend

COUNTY AGENT IN CHARGE

Basis for Payment of Benefits to Farmers Will Be Worked Out

Details of the 1937 federal soil conservation program were to be mapped out today at a meeting of the 60 township agricultural conservation committeemen at the Marion Y M C A County Agent S L Anderson announced The meeting follows a meeting of county committeemen and county agents of 11 north central Ohio counties at Norwalk last Friday, when general plans were discussed

Meetings for the benefit of the farmers will be held in every township beginning next week the dates to be fixed at today's meeting Mr Anderson said He also expects to clear up the remainder of the 1936 conservation program today Approximately 1 200 farmers in Marion county applied for benefits under the 1936 program and approximately 450 of their applications have been forwarded to the state office thus far for final checking and for early payments Mr Anderson said The remainder of the applications will be sent in shortly in a group according to present plans The average payment per acre in Marion county is between $1 and $11 he said

To Establish Base

In the 1937 program a soil depleting base figure will be established for each farm with separate bases for general crops such as corn wheat oats barley vegetables and truck crops In establishing such bases consideration will be given to information gathered in the 1936 work

Each farm will have a soil conserving base also

According to all indications Marion county will have a corn acreage limit in conformity to good conservation practice and will average slightly less than the 1936 planted corn acreage

Land will be classified as soil depleting (planted in corn grain sweet sorghums and potatoes) soil conserving (planted in clover alfalfa, blue grass timothy lespedeza) and neutral or those planted in emergency crops

For diversion of soil depleting crops the payment will average $6 an acre varying with the general productivity of the farm For increasing soil conserving crops the payment will be made at the rate of $3 an acre In addition if a corn acreage limit is established here farmers will have five per cent added to their diversion payments

Soil building activities such as planting of trees liming terracing and new seedings of soil conserving crops will also be profitable for

BROOKINGS SEES BIGGER U.S. SAVINGS IN SHAKEUP

Foresees $30,161,000 Netted Yearly by Consolidation of Money Lending Agencies of Government Alone

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Jan 14 — The Brookings Institution told the senate's government reorganization committee today that $30 161 000 could be saved annually through consolidation of federal money lending agencies

The report attracted immediate attention at the Capitol in view of President Roosevelt's estimate that yearly savings under his entire regrouping program would approximate only $30 000,000, unless congress should abandon many functions

The institution a private organization for economic research, submitted the report—first of a group covering the whole government—to Chairman Byrd Democrat of Virginia

It is my personal guess said Byrd that this saving can be made even greater because the recommendations cover agencies aggregating more than $90 000 000 annually

The Virginian, affirming his determination to press for great economies has estimated the budget could be reduced by up to $200-000 000 a year

The Brookings report, discussed

Strikes To Halt Auto Deliveries in Three Weeks

General Motors Far Behind in Orders When Walkout Started

By The Associated Press

DETROIT Jan 14 Continuance of the present strike situation in the automotive industry will mean the complete suspension of General Motors deliveries to dealers in about three weeks It was indicated in automotive sources today

Heavy demand greeted the introduction of all new models throughout the industry last November When the strike in General Motors plants developed each of the corporation's units had a heavier bank of unfilled orders on hand than at any time in the last decade with the possible exception of the 1929 boom period

Far behind on deliveries General Motors had stepped up production schedules in all its units It was planning a January output of 2[illegible] 000 cars and trucks Instead of this volume the aggregate for this month said W S Knudsen executive vice president will be about 7[illegible] 000

By the end of next week he all production will be entirely dried up

In trade circles the general expectation is a speeding up of production on the part of other units of the industry which have not yet felt any serious effects of the strike although glass supplies admittedly are causing concern to all producers

Production for the entire industry this week has been estimated by the Automotive Daily News at 75 345 units But for the strike it would have exceeded 120 000 units

By The Associated Press

BIRMINGHAM Ala Jan 14 — Federal District Judge David J Davis held the federal social security act constitutional today and dismissed two suits asking injunctions to prevent collections of taxes levied under it

More than 200 Alabama firms were petitioners in the suits They pleaded double payment because the deputy collector of internal revenue here refused to credit them with payments made under the Alabama social security act companion of the federal measure and attacked validity of the federal law

The state act was held invalid by a three judge federal court at Montgomery recently When the state appealed the funds collected under the law were ordered held under court guardianship pending final adjudication Petitioners said they were not allowed deductions for the payments held in escrow by the court.

HEAVY RAINFALL RECORDED

Waters Expected To Reach 10 Foot Flood Stage at Prospect Today

Marion county's rivers and streams fed by nearly three days of intermittent rain and melting ice today began to overflow their banks and cover roads at many points Although slight damage has been reported thus far it is believed that unless the rainfall further north has been small [illegible] what is here might cause considerable destruction The Whetstone and Scioto rivers were rising at the rate of nearly a foot an hour this morning according to reports to the office of the county surveyor

At the same time reports of similar new flood conditions were made from various portions of the state according to The Associated Press Assurance was given by government weather experts at Cincinnati that there is no immediate danger of a damaging flood The state highway patrol at Columbus reported that high water threatened to close many sections of highways

No Settlement Reached in Nearly Three Hours of Discussion as Recess Brings Parley to Halt.

COMMENT WITHHELD

Governor Silent as to Whether Either Party Displays Conciliatory Attitude Toward Other.

By The Associated Press

LANSING Mich Jan 14 Gov Frank Murphy's strike peace conference between General Motors representatives and leaders of the United Automobile Workers of America recessed at 1 50 p m today without reaching a basis of settlement The conference was resumed at 3 p m

Gov Murphy and the conferees said they had agreed to withhold comment pending further developments

Asked whether the representatives were displaying a conciliatory attitude the governor only reiterated that there will be no comment at this time

Confer With Board

The conference began at 11 05 a m after the men had been closeted in the executive chamber for an hour the union representatives emerged and went into a separate session with their board of strategy which had accompanied them to the capital from Detroit

There was no announcement of the purpose of the interruption Nor was there any indication whether progress was being made

Gov Murphy had requested representatives of the conflicting groups to meet him without condition or prejudice to seek "an immediate and peaceful termination of the strikes which have thrown 111 000 General Motors wage earners out of work

Before the meeting started Larry Davidow union counsel charged that Joseph R Joseph Genesee county prosecutor violated Michigan statutes by participating in a case in which an injunction was sought against strikers in General Motors plants in Flint Davidow, who did not participate in the conference said Joseph owned 61 shares of the corporation's stock

After approximately an hour, the conferees divided temporarily into two groups Representatives of the union went into a separate office to confer with their board of strategy which alone is empowered to act for the U A W A in the dispute

Gov Murphy and the General Motors officials remained in the executive office

Gov Murphy invited the representatives to meet without condition or prejudice saying objections raised by each side last week had prevented a joint consultation

"We are glad to accept and to restate our position given you in my letter of Jan 8 Knudsen wrote in accepting the governor's invitation

Knudsen mentioned General Motors specified that all down strikers in five plants must evacuate before the company would negotiate with the union The union declined to accede unless the corporation gave written assurance that no attempt would be made to resume operations or remove equipment during the negotiations

In New York a spokesman for General Motors said that Knudsen's acceptance of the governor's invitation should not be interpreted as meaning that the corporation was receding from its position concerning the sit down strikers

Hold No Prejudice

Martin's acceptance informed the governor that union representatives would attend the conference without any condition or prejudice

The United Auto Workers have been ready at all times through conference and collective bargaining he said to arrive at a settlement which would be fair to all parties concerned including the public

An order issued overnight started approximately 900 more troops to Flint, where 1 400 already were billeted No reason was given for the movement of additional troops into the Flint strike zone where all was quiet

At the request of Gov Murphy Sheriff Thos W Wolcott held up service of John Doe warrants for the arrest of several hundred sit down strikers in the Fisher Body plant No 2 where Monday night's riot occurred He also delayed service of warrants on seven strike leaders who were outside the plant during the disorder

Seven other automobile workers who were wounded in the clash, were in the Genesee county jail, where they were taken yesterday after receiving hospital treatment. Seven others still were in the hospital

Your Health

BY DR R S COPELAND

Asthma

Asthma [illegible] of the doctor's most perplexing problems This is a pity because it has been estimated that three and one half per cent of the population suffer from asthma or hay fever

Within the past decade I am glad to say real advances have been made in the control of this annoying disorder Indeed in many instances complete cure is possible This desirable state of affairs has been made possible by a better understanding of the underlying causes of asthma

Some persons are sensitive to certain substances Then they are said to be allergic They are unpleasantly influenced by things which do not affect the average person

Allergy is the word used for this peculiar oversensitiveness of an individual to certain substance Direct or even indirect exposure brings about an unpleasant reaction mild or severe in one who has a tendency to asthma or hay fever A similar reaction is sometimes observed in persons who have a tendency to hives now considered to be an allergic condition

As I have indicated there is a close relationship between hay fever and asthma In fact many persons who have hay fever during early adult life suffer from asthma in late middle life For this reason it is wise for the sufferer from hay fever to correct the tendency at an early age

I am often asked about a treatment in which the patient is desensitized It is indeed a valuable treatment By means of it many a patient is cured of the sensitivity which has caused his trouble

The treatment consists of injecting under the skin small doses of allergen the neutralizing substance The dose is gradually increased and repeated until the patient can tolerate considerable amounts of the substance without suffering ill effects This procedure has been valuable in the treatment of stubborn cases of hay fever

But of course it must be known what the offending substance is or the curative agent cannot be prepared and applied It is now possible to find the disturbing material by means of certain skin tests A tiny amount of the suspected substance is injected into the skin and all its reactions are carefully noted If there is no skin reaction the test is regarded as negative But if the substance is the one distressing to the allergic person there will be a marked reaction with redness swelling and tenderness of the skin Then the desensitizing treatment is indicated

BLANCHESTER

Blanchester, Clinton county, was founded by John and Joel Blair [illegible] two brothers [illegible] September 1833. There were [illegible] people established upon lands in Clinton county at [illegible] time to entitle the district to be called settled. Among the first settlers were a number of men who had served in the Revolutionary war.

The county was organized in 1810. Most of the first settlers in Clinton county came from Kentucky, North Carolina and Pennsylvania. Those from North Carolina brought with them the name of the seat of the county, established also in 1810—Wilmington.

Clinton county was given its name in honor of George Clinton. [illegible] States.

3. Repeat gargle and do not rinse mouth, allow gargle to remain on membranes of the throat for prolonged effect

Just Gargle This Way with Bayer Aspirin

Here is the most amazing way to ease the pains of rawness of sore throat resulting from a cold we know you have ever tried.

Crush and dissolve three genuine BAYER ASPIRIN tablets in one third glass of water. Then gargle with this mixture twice, holding your head well back.

This medicinal gargle will act almost like a local anesthetic on the sore irritated membrane of your throat. Pain eases almost instantly; rawness is relieved.

Countless thousands now use this way to ease sore throat. Your doctor, we are sure, will approve it. And you — it is marvelous.

Get the real BAYER A[illegible]RIN at your druggist by asking for it by its full name, not by the name "aspirin" alone.

Today we are gathered to pay tribute to a brave little boy

We are not alone in doing this. We are few in number but beyond us there are thousands perhaps millions whose thoughts are with us This is not a time for words Everything that can be said has been said

EXPERT ADVICE

GENUINE recovery will not be attained until unemployment has been reduced greatly from its present unwieldy proportions

The urge to do something directly is responsible for proposals of a shorter work week It is argued that the demand for labor be distributed among a larger number of workers by reducing the number of hours which individuals may put in at their jobs—at no reduction in pay

This would cause an increase in the cost of production

Attention is directed to the digest of the report of the Brookings Institution appearing on this page Economists of the institution have reached the conclusion that direct action as proposed by President Roosevelt and many labor leaders would retard genuine recovery instead of advancing it

Their opinion deserves attention It represents expert advice The Brookings Institution is a private organization dedicated to national service In a literal sense it is a brain trust working independently whose conclusions are available for guidance of government officials

Rumble.

The Matanuska colonists making a fresh start under government auspices in Alaska probably wish history could be forgotten

Every time they make a complaint about conditions some critic throws it up to them that the Pilgrims the frontiersmen—in fact everybody who ever ventured into the wilderness—behaved much better than they are behaving

A new rumble of discontent has started it is reported over new orders of the Alaska Rural Rehabilitation Corp calling for certain changes in policy and curtailing funds Again invidious comparisons will be made of the Alaskan colonists with the Pilgrims who had no beneficient government to look after them

It is sometimes overlooked that the Pilgrims had their troubles too They came to America as part of a commercial venture When their backers snugly home in safe England withdrew certain supplies and revised policies the Pilgrim fathers and mothers were very discontented Some of them wished they never had come here and said so

But they stayed and now no one troubles to remember that they were filled with misgivings about their condition The families which have been settled in the Matanuska valley—for a social not a commercial purpose—may get the benefit of the same forgetfulness sometime Who knows but that a hundred years hence descent from the Matanuska settlers will be traced as proudly as descent from the passengers of the Mayflower?

The First Americans

Every year Navajo Indians are pulled out of snowdrifts in the Zuni mountains N M where they go to collect pinon nuts

The annual rescue is staged by the federal government and the Indians no doubt are placidly grateful

There seems to be a moral lurking in their dependence on the Great White Fathers in Washington but let it lurk

However it is a fact that the Indians are the original Americans They said Hello to the first foreigners who came here

Dependence on the government contrary to the mistaken notion that all the country's troubles can be blamed on immigration apparently is just another old American custom

Guidepost

Man's memory isn't all it might be

He needs a good many guideposts to steer him along the course of even the recent history of his own milestones of life

He remembers the year he was married because it was in December of 1910 the barn burned down and they sold the farm and moved into an adjoining township where he met the girl and they were married a year later the day after New Year day of 1912

Another guidepost has been erected

It was in January 1937 that Ohio had the warmest weather of [illegible] months before which was just after King Edward abdicated to marry Mrs Walsh—name so the king must have abdicated in 1936 Yes that's right because he abdicated the same year Franklin D Roosevelt was re-elected and that was in 1936 too.

Essentials for Recovery

THE UNITED States [illegible] recovery [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] more [illegible]

There are kinds of proposals for bringing this desirable [illegible] to pass Obviously [illegible] are wrong If there were [illegible] would [illegible] larger [illegible] the [illegible]

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] been [illegible] of [illegible] explains why the Brookings Institution [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] in Jan [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

In a [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the report was diametrically opposed to [illegible] federal policy [illegible] by the [illegible] administration [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] The Brookings Institution [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

This [illegible] that the country's best known organization for research [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Roosevelt's efforts [illegible] the prevailing hours of labor [illegible] reduced in order to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Human interest is added [illegible] by the fact that the President's uncle Frederic A Delano is chairman of the board of trustees of the Brookings Institution

There is says the Institution an enormous accumulated deficiency of production That [illegible] there is plenty of work to be done [illegible] recovery [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] all the unemployed will find jobs

President Roosevelt reflecting the position taken by certain leaders of organized labor says that working hours should be shortened so that the unemployed will find jobs immediately When he does so he flies in the face of many accredited economists including those of the Brookings Institution

They point out that the drift toward higher prices of manufactured goods is the gravest danger which we face today Higher prices are caused by higher costs of production The most important part of the cost of production is wages Therefore if industry must pay out more money in wages it must raise prices

That says the Institution's report on recovery will defeat what the country is trying to do The standard of living of the masses can be raised in only one way—by increasing the amount of goods available and decreasing the price thus making it possible for each family to buy more goods If wage costs are forced up unnaturally they will interfere with the delicate mechanism of complete economic recovery according to the reasoning of the economists of the Brookings Institution A paragraph of their report dealing with proposed reduction of working hours reads

The sharp rise in costs unrelated to efficiency would be certain to result either in rapid rises in industrial prices with profoundly disturbing effects upon the operation of the economic system as a whole or the immediate halting of business activity with a consequent increase in unemployment

The report deals with many other matters besides the folly of trying to attain complete recovery by raising cost of production

Favorable factors in the present economic situation are noted but on the darker side are such matters as an unbalanced budget and possibilities of inflation Concerning the budget about which President Roosevelt recently informed the country the report says

We are still gambling upon a sufficiently rapid growth in national income to permit a balancing of the budget before confidence in the credit of the government wanes the continued ability of the treasury to obtain all the funds required at low interest rates has given rise to a false sense of security We are working on a very narrow margin and adverse developments could quickly upset all present calculations

A complete list of essentials for a consistent program of national recovery as [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] reports [illegible]

Resumption [illegible] [illegible] federal budget [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] ending [illegible]

[illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] present [illegible] of maintaining fixed prices of [illegible] and establishment [illegible] [illegible] national cooperation of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] exchanges

Extension of the program of reciprocal trade agreements as the most practical means [illegible] [illegible] barriers [illegible] and [illegible] channels of international trade

Preservation of the generally favorable [illegible] of prices and wages [illegible] in the [illegible] [illegible] of progress by expanding the real purchasing power of workers and creating a demand for added production and employment [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] upon price reduction as a means of [illegible] the benefits of technological progress to all groups [illegible] the [illegible]

Maintenance [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] hours of labor [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of meeting the production requirements involved in restoring during the next few years the standards of living of the laboring masses and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of the nation as a whole

Elimination of industrial practices and policies private and public—which tend to restrict output [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] increase of productive efficiency

[illegible] of phases in agricultural policy from [illegible] [illegible] output and raising prices to abundant [illegible] of the supplies of raw materials and [illegible] required by expanding markets

The report states that the following conclusions have been reached

That the United States has recorded a degree of recovery appreciably less than in many other countries lagging behind England Germany Sweden Hungary Chile and Japan

That the bottom of the depression both throughout the world and in the United States was reached in the summer of 1932 although there was a subsequent recession here and in two or three other countries

That the number of unemployed in the United States is about 9 500 000

That 17 per cent of the national income in 1936 went to federal state and local taxes and that all such taxes would absorb 20 per cent of income if governmental budgets were balanced

That the best-sustained recovery movement began shortly after the NRA was declared unconstitutional

That wage rates since the NRA have tended to rise rather than fall

That a production program large enough to replace accumulated deficiencies in the next five years and expand output to a level providing commensurate consumption volume with that in 1929 would be faced by a shortage of labor

That the drift toward higher prices of manufactured goods is the gravest danger which we face today

That especially in the first stage the conflicting and confusing character of the early Roosevelt program tended on the whole to retard the recovery program

That dollar depreciation and the NRA policies threatened to undermine the whole recovery program

That a balanced budget now is a vital necessity

In the summary and conclusions the favorable factors of the present situation are headed as follows An abundance of loanable funds is available at low rates of interest The burden of private indebtedness has been materially reduced in the course of the last three years The trend with respect to wage and price relationships has been unusually satisfactory The balance between agriculture and industry has been materially improved uncertainty with respect to monetary and banking policies has almost wholly disappeared developments in the field of commercial policy have been laying foundations for an expansion of foreign trade the enormous accumulated deficiency of production is a powerful stimulus to further expansion finally the confusion with respect to government policies has been greatly reduced

Progress Ahead in Government

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1937 by The Marion Star

WASHINGTON Jan 14—Like a breath of fresh air in a musty room comes President Roosevelt's message indorsing the report of a special committee which recommends an extensive overhauling and modernizing of the entire executive structure of the federal government

One may disagree here or there with certain details but the broad outline is so sensible and so imperative if we are to make our government effective and efficient that the only dark cloud on the horizon is the possibility that the champions of the spoils system on Capitol Hill and the [illegible] [illegible] of political pull in government may succeed in blocking this reorganization plan as they have other plans of similar nature under past administrations

The idea of reorganizing the executive branch of the government and its numerous commissions and bureaus is not new having been suggested by Republican as well as Democratic presidents but it remained for President Roosevelt to take a bold initiative in projecting a plan that really reorganizes

One is almost tempted to be thankful that Mr Roosevelt won by his own influence such a huge majority in congress in the last election if the correct result flowing therefrom now is the actual adoption by an unfettered congress of the plan that has just been submitted to it

The proposal is far reaching and constitutes by far the most comprehensive reform that has ever been proposed with respect to the administrative side of the federal government Its weakness is not that it concentrates power in the chief executive for in administrative tasks this is essential but that it does not provide for the clear definition of the federal function from a policy standpoint so that congress and the executive may both follow more closely the true requirements and obligations of the federal government without adding responsibilities that could be left to the states and the cities

Only Way To Cut Expenses

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] which formulated the reorganization plan frankly confessed in its report that it did not consider the policy-making functions as this was something for the executive and congress to [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] government expenses [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the committee on [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] which the President [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the subject [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] constitutional [illegible] [illegible]

The new plan as a whole [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] direction and when Senator Byrd of Virginia [illegible] [illegible] committee finish looking into the matter from the congressional aspect which is also desirable it is certain that the country will get a real opportunity to know something about the reorganization of the federal machinery

Much of the new plan is necessarily theoretical if not politically impractical in the sense that it must run the gauntlet of hard boiled congressional scrutiny plus the effects of an exercise by bureaucracy of its usual capacity for legislative pressure among its friends on Capitol Hill This has blocked previous legislation on governmental reorganization and may sterilize some of the fine proposals now being made

Everything will depend on Mr Roosevelt's own enthusiasm for the plan He can content himself with the present message and recommendations and feel that he has done his part He can in effect show that it is not he but congress that maintains the spoils system and prevents merit from being introduced in the choice of personnel But if he wants really to put the full influence of his position and prestige behind the whole plan and get congress to adopt the principles in some form of law that give Mr Roosevelt specific power to carry out the details he can probably at this stage of his career force the measure through Delay would be fatal to the plan for if too much time elapses the whole report will be sniped at and here and there concessions will be made to pressure And the subject may be forced gradually into the future when other items of controversy on the congressional scene may cause such changes as actually to prevent a majority from being mustered for the plan [illegible]

There will be many points in the reorganization plan that will require amplification and discussion Thus it is not clear why the comptroller general's office should be abolished and its functions given in part to the department of justice and in part to the treasury This means that normally the auditing of the expenditures is turned over to political officers Much better would be a plan which would make the comptroller general's office a part of a regular executive bureau or agency but with an independence such as [illegible] the bureau of internal revenue [illegible] the minimum of interference shall be [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to be [illegible] decisions of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] bureau

Likewise the budget [illegible] needs more specific limitations and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] will conform to congressional desire

[illegible] the new plan [illegible] means [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and power to direct the executive

Trouble Ahead for President's Plan

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON Jan 14 — There will be no denying that President Roosevelt's reorganization plan knocked his congressional leaders approximately speechless

Some like Speaker Bankhead muttered only that it was a matter of great importance and should be studied Others begged off on the ground that they had not read the suggestions while a few frankly declined to express themselves aloud

This seemed inappropriate for legislators who were ready 10 days ago to pass at once anything Mr Roosevelt wanted

The proper explanation was offered by a Democratic senator who could qualify for one of Mr Roosevelt's proposed six legman assistants as he expressed a passion for anonymity Said he

I recall that a W S Gilbert ship was once becalmed and as the crew had no food they ate each other The cook finally survived and announced with a knowledge of what was within him I am the cook and the captain bold and mate of the Nancy Brig and a bosun tight and a midshipmite and the crew of the captain's gig The cook would be a thin man compared with Mr Roosevelt if this reorganization goes through as recommended but don't worry It won't

Conflict

The confidence of the passionate anonym was probably premature A peculiar inner situation has developed Certain Democratic leaders appear to be banding to conduct a wholly inside fight against the program by passive resistance arranging indefinite delays etc without ever saying a word against it publicly

At the same time others started creating machinery to ram it through the house Instead of letting the house select a standing committee to consider the matter they arranged to have the speaker do it In order that none except loyal administration men would be appointed

In a situation like this it is impossible to tell now how much of the presidential program will survive The consensus is that about 50 per cent eventually will be approved by congress six months hence

Probabilities

Best advance guess is that this is what will emerge

Mr Roosevelt will undoubtedly get his six new confidential agents These jobs will be of superior importance Six presidential channels for able to control the roads to the President's mind from the government departments may develop more power than cabinet member If each will be assigned a particular category such as finance national defense etc each may become the most influential authority on his subject The effect will be more presidential control over the government departments less cabinet influence

The two new departments of Social Welfare and Public Works will be authorized without much controversy

The proposed presidential accounting system will be dropped into the first handy congressional waste basket and a substitute plan composed Congress will not permit the attorney general to write legal authorizations for presidential expenditures and the treasury secretary to audit them as both cabinet officers are removable by the President at will Congressional sentiment will favor a stricter congressional audit and control in place of the admittedly inefficient present comptroller general system

The President will get part of the control he wants over expenditures of independent commissions but not the most important part Congress created these commissions (like federal trade and interstate commerce) so that no President could make them vehicles for administration policy Safeguards against presidential control will undoubtedly be written into the law

Suppression

One other thing the President will not get is a central information bureau to correlate and coordinate the information bureaus of the various government departments Newsmen here generally fear the suggestion as another encroachment on their news-gathering rights

News gathering here has always been more or less of a game in which both sides the government and the press are bound by unwritten rules of fairness Government officials try to suppress all information detrimental to themselves or their causes The press expects that Newsmen seek not only the blurbs which the officials hand out but the other side of the story Officials who are big enough should expect that

The machinery instituted by the recently enlarged press agent system had the effect of removing news gatherers further from sources of government news except those officially selected It was only insignificantly effective in that purpose Officials are still complaining daily about unauthorized news which they consider to be erroneous or unfair but which seems mainly to be objectionable for their purposes

Willingness

Not all congressmen take the majority view outlined above

Possibly 25 per cent seem to feel that congress will never compose a satisfactory government reorganization of its own and that the President must do it if it is to be done They are not much outraged about decreasing their own power and increasing that of the head of an increasingly strong federal government They are willing to let the President take the power and the responsibility

Quartette Vocalizing Popular

NEW YORK Jan 14—Radio is credited with killing off the old time quartette Turn almost any dial and one may get close harmony by experts that makes the amateurs seem very corny And a crack radio quartette is able to ask almost any figure and get it

But the barbershop harmonists are not altogether for the collectors of obsolescent Americana The chords still strike cheer in unsuspected places The Lambs The Players as well as the sedate Union League can scare up a foursome now and then worth cupping an ear to hear

Incidentally the elder Rockefeller is said to be a devotee of the diversion and always tunes in on the radio Another indication of the tug of the quartette is revealed at benefits when some vaudeville quartette is revived and fairly brings down the house The Avon Comedy Four for instance

In lower East Side barber shops and among sailors around Seamans Institute on South Street are still quartettes As of old Honey is the prime favorite And all hits include Carry Me Back to Old Virginia and of course that nippin for aspiring tenor Sweet Adeline

London hotels are declining to take further reservations for coronation week and foreigners seeking accommodation are going out of the hotel district in search of accommodation.

Probably the most ingenious plan yet evolved for the housing of coronation visitors has been evolved by one of the big British railroad companies.

It plans to place caravan coaches on selected sites as near as possible to the center of the city.

Shipping lines will bring some of their vessels up the Thames River to be used as floating hotels by the overflow crowd. Twenty permits have already been granted by the Port of London authority.

what to do but merely insists that the instructions shall be sufficiently broad and intelligently stated in laws so that an executive bureau can with common sense discretion carry them out. What the plan really calls for is an end of hamstringing by means of the customary appropriation bills … responsibility and obligation for expenditures fully defined and subject to full public disclosure to the legislative branch of government, an ideal long sought by all of us who have for years been urging and pleading for a modernization of the federal structure to meet the needs of a growing population and the complexities of our present day economic life.

Real for Remorse

What she had written to him I had not known at that time but now I was sure even without her definite revelation that she had firmly denied his plea and that his flight eastward had been part of a desperate gamble to make her reverse her decision.

No wonder remorse had ravaged her. I could see how she must have suffered at the thought of having sent a gallant gentleman to his death even if her own heart had not been at all involved in the tragedy.

But was this a correct premise? Was her heart involved in this tragedy? Were tenderness and grief to a … the only emotion … which had swept her during … journey from the White mountains to the hospital?

There was no answer to those questions in her face and her voice … labored speech which betrayed the depth of her emotion … but not its source.

"I had but one … when I heard … awful news" she said "and that was to reach Hal before … and … his death bed … whether what I told him was truth or lies."

Cases Parallel?

Did she … herself I wondered knowing that even as Lillian had made Robert Savarin's … bed a place of heavenly peace and happiness so I had planned to … Hal Meredith's … But Lillian's … had been born wholly of pity for her heart had been her husband's.

… the two cases were parallel in other … directly divergent. Both Harry Underwood and Jack Bickett had done everything possible to kill the love which their wives had for them. But while Harry had gloriously atoned for his neglect and cruelty and had become Lillian's loyal lover as well as her husband my cousin Jack was still pursuing the inexplicable course which had been his for years a course which it seemed to me was calculated to crush every spark of love in the heart of a wife.

"And now" Katherine said speaking in tones that held bewild…

…ness as well as pain. I face the possibility that Hal may not die that instead he may get well."

There was joy investing the bewilderment in her voice now but I knew that her problem was no less intricate because of that jubilance.

"Don't you see" her voice broke suddenly "that if he is going to live I can't say to him the things which I would tell him if he were going to go away forever?"

ROUT THAT COLD

Let It Not Hang on Thru the Use of Half-way Measures!

Beware of the "common cold"! The common cold, doctors will tell you, is the cause of more serious trouble than anything else.

Many a person who is in a pneumonia jacket today had but a common cold yesterday!

Neglect no cold. Take no chances with your treatment.

Treat a cold with a cold medicine, not a "cure-all." Treat it also with internal medicine. A cold is an internal infection.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is what a cold requires. It is first of all a cold tablet made expressly for colds. Secondly, it is internal medication, fourfold in effect.

Here's what it does:

First, it opens the bowels, an advisable step in treating a cold.

Second, it checks the fever in the system, a vital step.

Third, it relieves the headache and fever.

Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

Bromo Quinine tablets now come sugar coated as well as plain. The sugar coated are exactly the same as the regular except that the tablets are coated with sugar for palatability.

When you feel a cold coming on, trust to no makeshift methods. Adopt the proven course of safety—take Bromo Quinine.

Taken promptly, these tablets will often break up a cold in 24 hours and that's the speed you want.

Bromo Quinine tablets contain nothing harmful and are safe to take. Let them be your first thought in case of a cold.

Ask your druggist firmly for Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine and accept no substitute.

The few pennies' cost may save you a world of trouble.

"If you will give a little assistance?" suggested Karsanakoff looking at Bigelow.

"I think I can manage," said Bigelow.

"No, no. It will be easier if I help."

They picked up the body of Vronski between them and carried him into the cupboard, placing him on the floor with his back against the wall. Since they had decided not to call the police, Bigelow examined him again to verify Karsanakoff's swift conclusion and satisfied himself that Vronski was indeed beyond aid. Anne had turned away, biting her lip.

"Are you all right?" asked Bigelow anxiously as he came from the cupboard.

"Yes. Quite. Only—feeling a little sick," murmured Anne.

"Take her into the kitchen and get her a drink," he suggested to Karsanakoff.

"Come," said Karsanakoff, kindly, slipping an arm about Anne.

The Guests Arrive

They went out together. Bigelow picked up the gun, together with Karsanakoff's chiffon handkerchief, and tossed it into the cupboard. Then he hurried into the bathroom, picked up a bath towel and came back to mop up the floor where Vronski had fallen. Fortunately, the stain was on the hardwood, just missing one of the rugs. Bigelow was able to remove all trace of it, but he altered the position of the rugs to cover it, and be on the safe side. The blood soaked towel, he cast into the cupboard, too. Then he placed Vronski's hat on the shelf, hung up his coat and locked the cupboard door, taking the key.

As he glanced around him critically, to make certain that nothing had been overlooked, there came a ring at the door, downstairs. Anne came in from the hall, looking somewhat better.

"Can you go through with this?" he asked anxiously, his eyes studying her in frank concern.

"Yes, of course. I must," she answered.

"How shall we account for his absence?"

"Karsanakoff says we must say he went back to pick them up and bring them along."

"Where is she?"

"In the bedroom—telephoning her maid that she may be very late."

Bigelow listened and heard Karsanakoff's voice speaking softly in Russian. The next instant, there came a knock on the studio door and as Anne crossed to open it, Karsanakoff came from the bedroom.

Two women and three men appeared—all of them strangers to Bigelow, but Karsanakoff had evidently met them at the night club.

"But Count Vronski is not with you?" she cried.

"No, isn't he with you?" asked one of the women, a rather plump blonde, very bejewelled.

"But no—he went back to bring you!" cried Karsanakoff.

"Mrs. Kane—Mrs. Barney," said Anne, making the introductions, "Mr. Bigelow....You've met Madame Karsanakoff, I see...."

"Yes, at Madge's—in the bar," put in one of the women—Mrs. Barney, apparently.

"Mr. Ledyard—Mr. Burton—Mr. Harrison," said Anne, completing her task.

The three gentlemen all shook hands.

"We'll doff our sables," said Mrs. Kane. "I know the way. Come, Mirabelle."

Mrs. Barney—who seemed to answer to the name of Mirabelle—"came." Karsanakoff accompanied them into the bedroom.

"I'll help with the drinks," offered Harrison. He was a fat youth with a beaming smile. "The only reason I'm ever asked out on parties is that I always help with the drinks."

"I don't have to be a waiter because I play the piano," said Burton, a rather slight dark fellow. Bigelow remembered him. He had been leading the orchestra at Madge's.

"I'm ornamental," said Ledyard. "I don't have to do anything but lend my distinguished presence."

Anne and Harrison went off to bring in drinks. There was another knock at the door and Bigelow opened it to admit two waiters with trays of sandwiches and bowls of salad. By the time they had arranged the food on the big work table, the three women had returned from the bedroom. Burton was already at the piano. The party had begun.

Mrs. Kane came toward Bigelow. She was big and blond and good natured and not young. Her ample form was clad in shining gray metallic discs, and she had diamond bracelets halfway up one arm. She was—in fact—dressed like a demimondaine—she had a respectable face beneath her heavy make-up.

"Don't be frightened," she said, "I may look like a battleship but I'm a pleasure craft, pure and simple." She waved a plump jeweled arm and added, "Chet calls these my riding lights."

"Chet?—" asked Bigelow politely.

"Chet Harrison. One of our brighter lights. I forgot you were a stranger in these parts. Sit down and I'll tell you all about everybody. And when I say all, I mean all!"

"It takes a brave woman to trust one of these couches," went on Mrs. Kane. "I wouldn't risk it if you and two or three others weren't on hand to pull me up again.... Thanks, Ducky," she added to Harrison who brought her a drink.

"Who is Harrison—beside being a brighter light?" asked Bigelow.

"An interior decorator. He and Bobby Ledyard have a place together and they make fortunes selling the right thing to the newly rich."

"Are there still newly rich?" asked Bigelow. "Even nowadays?"

"God yes. The backwoods are full of them. I'm only two seasons old myself. That is, I was always rich—my grandfather stole most of Topeka, Kan., away from the Indians. That's why I was named Topeka, but most of my friends call me Toppy. Only I was rich in the west you see, without getting much out of it until I got the idea of divorcing Sam." She beamed on him.

Some new arrivals came and Bigelow heard Karsanakoff asking them where Vronski was. Bigelow listened to the music and the chatter and wondered what would happen if any one could guess the answer. . . .

The women went off to [illegible] room to leave their cloaks and powder their noses while Anne painstakingly introduced the men. Then the women were introduced. Abroad, no hostess would have bothered, once the party got under way. The roof is supposed to constitute an introduction. And even here, Bigelow noted, the business was merely a convention for he did not even catch the names and he was certain that nobody got his.

However, in the interval, one of the new arrivals caught Mrs. Kane's attention and Bigelow found himself for an instant alone. He saw that nobody was in the bedroom and went in there to use the telephone.

Anne followed him.

"What are you going to do?" she asked curiously.

"Telephone an old friend of mine —Dr. Austreitz. Do you know him?"

"No," said Anne. "He's the famous nerve specialist, isn't he?"

"Yes. I want to ask him to come to the party, if you don't mind."

"Of course not," said Anne. "But —why?—"

"Because I think we may need him—afterward."

"You—can trust him?" she asked, drawing a sharp breath.

"Absolutely."

She nodded, and brushed back her hair wearily. "It's all so ghastly," she murmured. "Listen to them out there!" . . . If they knew!—"

Karsanakoff gets a mysterious phone call tomorrow.

St. Mary To Play Lima, Pleasant Teams This Week

PAROCHIAL SQUAD TO MEET BOTH RIVALS ON FOREIGN COURTS

St. Rose High Game Friday, Clash With County Quintet Set for Saturday

Two games are on the busy basketball schedule of the Marion St Mary Parochial High school team this week. Fresh after a double-header last week the team will be on the road both Friday and Saturday night for games on foreign courts. Friday night the Kelly coached cagers will travel to Lima to meet the St Rose High school team and the following night they will invade the court of Pleasant township High school.

St. Mary cagers last week traveled to Morral for a Friday night game and were turned back by the short margin of a 24 to 18 score. On Saturday night the parochial team entertained Caledonia High's team on the Shovel gymnasium court and emerged with a 21 to 13 victory. Thus far in the team's clashes with county high squads it has been able to break even but the Saturday game at Pleasant is expected to be a difficult one for the St Mary team.

Today the Pleasant township cage aggregation stands at the top of the county league holding a record of five victories in six contests. Morral the team which registered a six point victory over St. Mary, has broken even in county loop contests winning three of six games.

Coach Bob Kelly who has been handicapped in developing a team by the lack of experienced players directed the parochial quintet in a series of long practice sessions this week.

The practice periods included scrimmage work and the routine workout on plays. No indication has been made by Kelly that his line-up for this week's game will differ from the squad which he selected to send against previous opponents. For the forward posts it lies among the three regulars Feldner Myers and Gundy while Schuler is likely to get the call for the center position and Robbins Wixtead and H Drake are among the eligibles to fill the guard assignments.

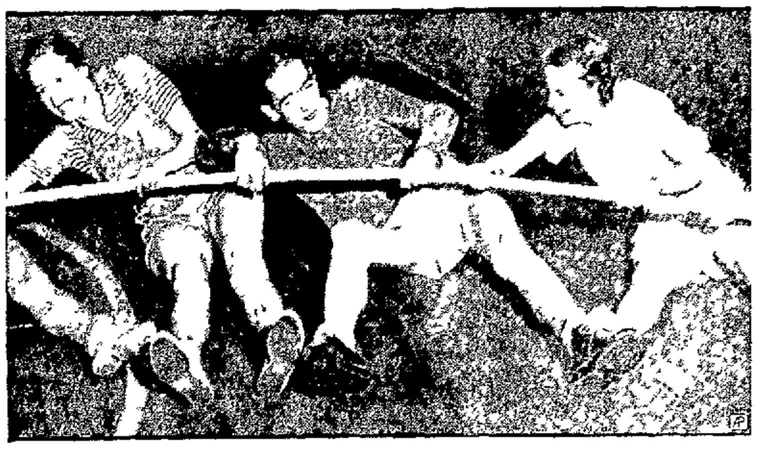
ATHLETIC INSTRUCTOR INTRODUCES MIXED GYM CLASSES FOR ADULTS



By The Associated Press

Men and women share in physical education classes of Kansas City Mo club instructor.

* * *

KANSAS CITY Mo—Dowagers calves grow trim and businessmen paunches melt away like butter in the gymnasium of the Kansas City Athletic club where Dr Joseph A Reilly is pioneering in mixed gym classes.

Shrewd Reilly faced Reilly when membership in his physical education classes gave a hint of waning, found a remedy in getting the boys and girls to do their dumbbell lifting together.

Now society girls stenographers lawyers doctors students and merchants find willing muscles to the droning one-two-three-four exercises led by the club's physical instructor—one time Georgetown sprint king.

When the men and women were in separate classes they went through the drills listlessly says Reilly. Now they take more interest in the exercises and get a real workout.

The mixed class changed exercise from work to play. They used to go to gym class from a sense of duty. Now they go because they have a good time.

Reilly a veteran A A U official sees mixed gym classes as the financial salvation of athletic clubs.

Men and women play tennis and golf together and swim together on the beaches he argues and there is no reason why they shouldn't go to gym class together. It [illegible] up the class tremendously.

The K C A C mixed class meets three times a week for half an hour. Members play dart tennis and other games before and after class hours.

Class exercises are broadcast over a local radio station. Men's ages range from 16 to 60. Ten per cent are married. Slacks and gym shorts are worn by both sexes.

Pelton was with the Mitchell S D, club of the Nebraska league last year on option from Cedar Rapids. He was the league's leading hitter with a 376 average. Kinsel hurled last year in the Florida State league with the Daytona club with whom the Birds have a working agreement.

MID-ATLANTIC LOOP FRANCHISE IS MOVED

Zanesville Team Goes to Springfield With Backing of Indians

By The Associated Press

SPRINGFIELD O Jan 14—The first change in the complexion of the eight club Mid Atlantic baseball league for 1937 brought Buzz Wetzel's Zanesville franchise to Springfield today.

Wetzel manager of the Greys said the Cleveland Indians would back him here as they did last year when Zanesville captured the league pennant after a playoff with the Dayton Ducks.

Everything is satisfactory for transfer of the franchise Wetzel said in his joint announcement with members of the civic Athletic association. Actual signing of the lease remains only a formality he said.

Insufficient local backing has forced several franchise changes in recent years in the league composed of five Ohio members and Huntington and Charleston W Va and Johnstown Pa.

In addition to Zanesville Portsmouth and Dayton the Ohio teams in the league last year were Canton and Akron. Canton replaced Beckley W Va.

TWO CONTENDERS IN LINE FOR TITLE TRY

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK Jan 14—Out of a merry go round muddle came the middleweight division's battle lines today with a pair of ex champions Babe Risko and Teddy Yarosz as the rank up challengers for Freddy Steele's crown.

Risko who lost the title to the Tacoma slugger last year already has been given the number one shot. Yarosz comebacking after an operation which straightened out his trick knee took rank just behind the Syracuse puncher last night by decisively whipping New York's Solly Krieger in a 10 round bout at the Hippodrome.

As plans were laid today Risko will meet the champion in a return title engagement over the 15 round route in Madison Square Garden on February 19. The winner will in all probability tangle with Yarosz.

MORRAL PLAYERS IN TOP POSITIONS IN LEAGUE SCORING LIST

Schultz Sets Pace for Boys With 71 Points, Cochran Leads Girls

Two members of the Morral High school basketball team today hold the top individual scoring honors in both the boys and girls divisions of the county league.

Schultz center of the Morral boys squad has scored 71 points in the six games his team has played to head his division of the county cage loop. In the girls activity C Cochran a forward on the Morral entry in the league is out in front in the individual performance column with a record of 99 points scored in six contests.

Schultz is hard pressed for his hold on first place with Bumgartner Prospect center following with a total of 70 points and D Crum Agosta forward next in line with 68 points. Cochran however has far outdistanced her nearest rival in the girls competition. The holder of second place B Wasserbeck of Green Camp has a total of 74 points.

[illegible] junior high [illegible] of the Edison [illegible] scored a double [illegible] the Central entries. [illegible] 16 to 12 victory, and the reserve team of the same school was victorious 24 to 20, in the league-opening games played at the Y. M. C. A. last Friday night.

The cage program tonight will open at 7 o'clock with reserve teams of the two schools clashing. The varsity teams will meet immediately following the reserve game.

Although it's the first game in the three-team league for Vernon Heights High's varsity squad, the team saw action last Saturday night when it romped to a 19 to 4 victory over the St. Mary Junior High school squad at the Shovel gymnasium.

1937 Seen As Active Year for Ranks of Amateur Track Stars

(Note: This is another of a series written for the Associated Press by outstanding sports leaders. They deal with 1936 developments and 1937 prospects.)

BY DANIEL J. FERRIS
(Secretary-Treasurer, Amateur Athletic Union)

NEW YORK, Jan. 14—Man's ultimate [illegible] especially in track [illegible] where marks are measurable, remains a matter of conjecture. The magnificent accomplishments of the past year where [illegible] were toppled with astonishing frequency demonstrated that the perfection of technique and [illegible] will bring forth incredible performances.

Although the same razor-edge sharpness of interest which prevails in an Olympic year cannot be expected in a post-Olympic year there will be no relaxing insofar as the [illegible] are concerned during 1937. The improvement in the caliber of our athletes seems to be steady. New stars are developing in greater numbers today than in years gone by.

Stars Develop Overnight

The recent performance of Wayne Rideout of Texas, when he defeated Donald Lash, the world's two-mile record holder, in the second fastest time ever made outdoors in the United States, is a splendid illustration of how athletes develop overnight. Wayne and his twin brother Blaine have been competing in college meets for three or four years.

With Lash back in the form he displayed last June, he will be a hard man to beat at any distance from a mile to five. Other long distance stars who probably will compete indoors are Norman Bright of the Olympic club, San Francisco; Ray Sears, former Butler University champion, who has run two-miles indoors faster than any other American; Joe McCluskey, New York Athletic club veteran; Floyd Lochner of Oklahoma, former National Collegiate A. A. two-mile champion who broke the American steeplechase record in defeating Harold Manning, Glen Dawson and McCluskey. The three Olympic steeplechasers, at New Orleans last month: Tom Deckard of Indiana; Tom Ottey of the Penn A. C. and Louis Zamperini of Torrance, Calif.

Archie San Romani of Kansas State Teachers college of Emporia may prove the sensation of this year in the mile races. He surprised himself and his friends by winning a place on the Olympic team last July and before he returned home had firmly established himself as one of the world's finest milers.

Newcomer Brilliant

Another youngster who is expected to give the veterans plenty of trouble at 1,500 meters and the mile is Frank Fenske, University of Wisconsin junior, and if S. Szabo of Hungary, one of Europe's best milers, accepts an A. A. U. invitation, his presence will add color and interest to the campaign.

The mile field will be complete and the outcome more in doubt than ever if Lanky John Woodruff, Olympic 800-meter champion, decides to race at that distance.

The races between the quarter and mile will have plenty of fine material to draw from but the sprint fields will be weaker than usual unless Eulace Peacock and Ben Johnson, who broke down just before the Olympic tryouts last summer, return to their 1935 form and Sam Stoller of Michigan changes his mind about retiring. It is not yet definitely known whether Ralph Metcalfe will race this season.

The pole vault and high jump will present practically the same fields as last year and the weight events will have all except Jack Torrance, who has joined the ranks of the professional boxers.

More major track meets than usual will appear on this year's schedule both indoors and out. Chicago joins San Francisco and the east in scheduling a first-class indoor meet on March 6 and indoor meets will be held for the first time in years in Providence, R. I., and St. Louis.

EQUIPPED CHURCH URGED IN SERMON

Evangelist Explains Golden Texts In Calvary Sermon

An equipped church will awaken the world was the assertion of Evangelist Paul S Rees in his sermon last night at the Calvary Evangelical church. His text was "And the God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved entire without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who will also do it." (1 Thessalonians 5:23-24).

In part he said: Graphically the Christian experience may be represented by a line ascending from conversion not just a straight line until it reaches a plateau, then another crisis takes place and the line makes a sharper ascent.

The golden text of the church is "Christ also loved the church and gave Himself for it that He might sanctify and cleanse it," while the Golden Text of the world is "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

Another evangelistic service will be conducted at the church tonight at 7 30 o'clock by Rev Rees. The services are to continue through Sunday.

CAR STOCKS UP, OTHERS WAVER

Rally in Auto Shares Brought by Conference of Company and Strike Leaders.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 14—Automotive shares flooded the ticker tape with rallies of 1 to 3 points in today's stock market as prospects improved for settlement of the General Motors strike.

Offerings were plentiful in many other departments of the list, however, and near the fourth hour trends were rather uneven.

With a conference under way between General Motors officials and union representatives to seek means of effecting a peaceful conclusion of the present labor impasse, Wall Street sentiment appeared to be substantially improved.

The activity was pronounced at times, although there were a number of lulls in the proceedings when traders stopped to catch their breath.

There was a heavy turnover of low-priced utilities but most of these failed to duplicate their Wednesday's forward shove. Selected steels followed the motors. Sugars were in supply. Some of the merchandising issues lost ground. Specialties were still favored.

Bonds and commodities shifted in varying directions.

Conspicuous shares on the recovery were Chrysler, General Motors, Hudson, Studebaker, Packard, Reo, Mullins Mfg., Kelsey-Hayes, Stewart-Warner, Murray Corp., Electric Auto-Lite, Hayes Body, U. S. Steel, General Electric, duPont, Crown Cork, Newport Industries, Container Corp., Omnibus Corp., Celotex and Loew's.

Those holding shares of building material companies were interested in the estimate of the Engineering News-Record that major construction closed 1936 with a 50 per cent increase over the preceding year.

The oils were studied in the light of the American Petroleum Institute's figures disclosing total stocks of finished and unfinished gasoline last week were up 1,433,000 barrels over the week before. On the other hand stocks of gas and fuel oils declined 591,000 barrels.

Sterling, at the beginning of foreign exchange transactions, was off 3-16 of a cent at $4.91, and the French franc was down .00 3-16 of a cent at 4.67 cents.

REALIZING ERASES CORN PRICE ADVANCE

Reports of Pending Peace in Marine Dispute Helps Spur Selling.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Jan. 14—Corn climbed 1¼ cents today to new peaks unequaled for years, but then reacted because of profit taking and wheat market downturns.

Reports which indicated settlement of the marine strike tended to increase corn selling as the last. Besides, the number of cattle on feed in corn belt states was officially reported as 23 per cent smaller than a year ago.

At the close, corn was ¼ lower to ⅝ higher compared with yesterday's finish, May new 1.11⅞@1.12, July new 1.07⅝@⅞, wheat ⅝@1⅛ down, May 1.33⅞@1.34, July 1.15¾@⅞, oats ⅛ off to ¼ up, and provisions unchanged to 12 cents decline.

FARM LOAN GROUP HAS MEETING HERE

Reports at Annual Session Show Business Increase; State Agent Speaks.

A talk by Paul R. Mootz, representative of the Ohio division of the collection and credit department of the Federal Land bank of Louisville, and election of officers for 1937 were features of the annual meeting of the Marion County National Farm Loan association held yesterday at the Y. M. C. A.

The association is a farm credit administration agency making long-time loans to owners of rural real estate and is a sister agency of the Marion Production Credit association, which makes short time production loans on chattels.

Annual report of Phil Ruehrmund, secretary and treasurer, showed that at the close of last year [illegible] members had farm mortgage loans totaling $1,100,900 in addition to which there are 173 land bank commissioner loans for a total of $342,300. Mr. Ruehrmund said the association's volume of business in 1936 represented a substantial increase over the 1935 business.

Mr. Mootz explained how the association here will be allowed an additional one-eighth of one per cent of the value of all loans made and serviced by the association as compensation for work previously handled at the federal land bank in Louisville. This work includes the responsibility for all collections from members and for the servicing of loans.

The Marion county association is not indebted to the federal land bank at this time, and consequently the new revenue will be held as an interest bearing reserve against possible future contingencies, it was explained.

Directors reelected at the meeting are C. W. Feller of Claridon township, Frank Oesterle of Big Island township, J. Wayne Hoagland of Montgomery township, A. W. Augenstein and H. H. Beringer of Waldo township. Fifty-six stockholders representing 2,468 shares of stock attended.

The directors reelected C. W. Feller as president and Mr. Ruehrmund as secretary-treasurer and chose H. H. Beringer as vice president.
